

For Immediate Release:
October 17, 2014

For More Information:
Scott Wisser
swisser@huttig.com

Huttig Building Products Hires New Territory Manager for New Jersey

St. Louis, Mo—Huttig Building Products, Inc. has hired Bob Kern Sr. as the new territory manager to cover Southern New Jersey from the Huttig Wilkes-Barre branch in Pennsylvania.

Kern has more than 20 years of experience in the building materials industry. He started his career with Peter Lumber Company in Pleasantville, NJ, where he was the operations manager for many years. Most recently, Kern was territory manager with Milliken Millwork.

"We are pleased to have Bob with us here at Huttig," Scott Wisser, general manager at the Huttig Wilkes-Barre facility, said. "We feel very fortunate to find such a high caliber person like Bob to fill this role with his great business acumen and wealth of knowledge of the industry. I am confident that Bob will provide the leadership and oversight to ensure the highest level of service for our vendors and customers."

"It's great to be here with Huttig. They are a class outfit with a full arsenal of products," Kern said. "I believe I have a lot to offer our customers and suppliers, and I will work hard to prove myself to them."

###

About Huttig

Huttig Building Products, founded in 1885, is a leading domestic distributor of millwork, building products and wood products used principally in new residential construction and home improvement, remodeling and repair work. Huttig has relationships with leading manufacturers and distributes its products through 27 wholesale distribution centers serving 41 states. The Company's wholesale distribution centers sell principally to building materials dealers, national buying groups, home centers and industrial users, including makers of manufactured homes. Huttig is a publicly held company traded on the NASDAQ Capital Market under the symbol "HBP". For more information on Huttig, visit www.huttig.com.