

Huttig Building Products, Inc. Announces NASDAQ Listing

ST. LOUIS, MO – December 4, 2013 – Huttig Building Products, Inc., a leading domestic distributor of millwork, building materials and wood products, today announced that its common stock has been approved for listing on the NASDAQ Capital Market (NASDAQ) exchange. Its shares are expected to begin trading on NASDAQ on December 9, 2013 under the symbol “HBP”. Huttig’s shares will continue to trade on the OTCQB under the symbol “HBPI” until the close of business on December 6, 2013.

“We are pleased to take this step forward in our commitment to build shareholder value. We believe that listing on the NASDAQ will enhance our visibility in the investment community, increase the liquidity of our shares, and provide increased exposure to the institutional investment community,” said Jon Vrabely, Huttig’s President and CEO.
