Huttig Announces Strategic Partnership

Agreement with GAF Strengthens Position as Market Leader

ST. LOUIS, MO, May 30, 2017-- Huttig Building Products, Inc. (NASDAQ: HBP), a leading domestic distributor of millwork, building materials and wood products, is pleased to announce a distribution agreement with GAF, broadening Huttig's national product offering.

Huttig will distribute a variety of GAF roofing products, including shingles and roofing accessories.

"We are proud to establish a strategic partnership with GAF, North America's largest manufacturer of commercial and residential roofing, as our lead shingle supplier," said David Fishbein, Executive Vice President of the Huttig-Grip division of Huttig Building Products. "GAF is a trusted name with a broad portfolio of roofing system solutions. They are a great addition to our offerings and further strengthen our position as a market leader."

"We are excited to join the Huttig Building Products offering," said Jim Schnepper, President of GAF. "Huttig is a trusted name in the building materials industry with over 130 years of experience. We look forward to a successful, long-term relationship."

The GAF partnership is the latest result of Huttig's effort to secure more brands and broaden national offerings to enhance Huttig's role as the preferred distributor for millwork, building materials and fasteners.
